

10% reduction will be allowed on all merchandise during our ANNIVERSARY
SALE.

Bertram Cohn

Furrier and Ladies' Smart Wear
G at Twelfth St.

New arrivals
of Polo Coats
and Plaid Sport
Skirts.

Fifth Anniversary Specials

Appealing to women and misses. This is an opportunity to save on new Spring Dresses and Hats—10 per cent reductions prevail all over the shop.

$75 New Spring Dress Specials $39.50

The new and exclusive models—direct from our New York connections. A most exceptional value with which we are celebrating our Fifth Anniversary.

Taffetas—Tricotines—Georgettes
Serges—Satins.

We cannot make changes or send goods C. O. D., or upon approval—no exchanges can be made during this Anniversary season.

$9.00—$9.00
Exquisitely Trimmed Hats

Expressing the season's most advanced and charming conceptions. Every new feature of style, material and coloring. Novel trimming effects.

Values Up to $15.00

$9.00—$9.00

Extra Special
Silk Hosiery, $3.00 and $3.50 values.

$2.25

Extra Special
Kolski Fur Scarfs—2-piece effects, trimmed with heads, tails and paws.

$22.50

Society

THE ambassador of Argentina and Mme. Le Breton will entertain at dinner Monday evening, March 15, and again Friday evening, March 19.

The Postmaster General and Mrs. Burleson will entertain at a dinner tonight which was originally planned in honor of the Vice President and Mrs. Marshall, who are now in Arizona.

Mme. Cremer, wife of the minister of the Netherlands, will be at home tomorrow afternoon, when she will be assisted by Mme. Grouitch, wife of the Serbian minister; Mrs. Houston, wife of the Secretary of the Treasury; Mrs. Breckinridge Long, wife of the third assistant secretary of state, and the ladies of the legation.

The minister and Mme. Cremer are planning to give up the residence 1401 16th street, which they are now occupying and will spend the summer in Europe, returning to the United States in the autumn.

The minister of Cuba and Mme. de Cespedes have left for Key West en route for their home in Havana, where they will spend a month or more.

Miss Anita de Lima, niece of Mme. de Cespedes, is remaining in Europe throughout the spring.

The Speaker and Mrs. Frederick H. Gillett left Washington yesterday, the former to go to Augusta, Ga., with a party of man friends who are accustomed annually to play on the golf links there, and Mrs. Gillett to Boston, where she will join her daughter, the Misses Hoar, for a few weeks' visit.

Miss Louisa Hoar have been in Boston for some time.

The minister of Guatemala, Senor Don Joaquin Mendez, and his daughter, Senora de Godoy, will be the guests of honor in a dinner party to be entertained tonight by Col. William Eric Fowler.

Mrs. Davis Ireland will entertain a large and distinguished company at dinner this evening.

Assistant Secretary of Commerce and Mrs. Edwin F. Sweet will entertain informally at dinner this evening. Among their guests will be Chaplain Truman P. Riddle and Mrs. Riddle and Chaplain Riddle's mother, Mrs. Riddle of St. Louis.

Mrs. Cornelia Van R. Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sweet, has returned after a visit in Michigan and Ohio.

Mrs. James C. Pilling was hostess at a luncheon today, entertaining in compliment to her cousin, Mrs. John Church of Great Barrington, Mass.

Mrs. Edmund Pendleton will entertain a small party at Cafe St. Marks this afternoon.

Mrs. Charles S. Bromwell has cards out for a small tea on Sunday afternoon. Miss Mildred Bromwell, who returned yesterday from Hot Springs, Va., will entertain at dinner Saturday evening, and again Thursday evening, March 18, when her guests will be members of the younger set.

Mrs. Charles K. Koonen entertained at a luncheon today for her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Koonen, in compliment to Miss Margaret Blaine.

MISS HELEN HERRON TAFT, Acting president of Bryn Mawr College, whose coming today in connection with the endorsement fund drive for that institution brings many social engagements.

Crosson, a debutante of the season. The drawing room and dining room were adorned with a profusion of spring flowers, and the guests numbered thirty-five.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Strauss were the hosts at an interesting dinner party last evening at the Shoreham given in compliment to the Russian ambassador and Mme. Bakmeteff. Their guests numbered eighteen.

Miss Frances Carpenter entertained a few guests informally at dinner last evening.

Mrs. Truman H. Newberry will return today from a short trip to Philadelphia.

Mrs. David Franklin Houston, Mrs. Josephus Daniels, Miss Alice Paine, Mrs. Franklin K. Lane, Miss Gillett and Miss Temple have been added to the list of patronesses for the reception to be held in the home of the assistant secretary of state and Mrs. Breckinridge Long on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock, by the Washington Smith College Club, when the president of Smith College will speak, and Josephine Dodge Daskam Bacon will also give a talk.

Mr. William Phelps Eno has sent out cards for a meeting to be held at his home, 1711 N. street, tomorrow at 3 o'clock. Mrs. Martha P. Calver of the American Hygiene Association will speak on "Protective Work for Girls," and Mrs. William C. Van Winkle on "Local Conditions and Needs." Cardholders have been requested to bring their friends.

Senora de Heeren, wife of the honorary attaché of the Spanish embassy, has closed her residence, on 14th street, and is with relatives in Philadelphia, while Senor Heeren is in Spain on business. She was Miss Fernanda Wanamaker.

Mrs. Henry P. Dimock will be hostess today when four new reels of moving pictures taken in the department of the Alsace, northern France, will be shown. Mrs. B. Frank McNamee of Spray, N. C., who worked in Serbia with the Red Cross and the Baroness Charles Huard of Villiers, France, will tell of the work of the American committee, as it saw it put in force in France, recently. Mrs. McNamee has just returned from a visit in New York and is again with her cousin, Mrs. John Lindsay Morehead.

Mrs. Kellogg Hostess at a Tea. Mrs. Kellogg, wife of Senator Frank B. Kellogg, entertained at tea yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Severance, wife of Mr. Cordell M. Severance of St. Paul, who are in Washington for a short stay. Mr. and Mrs. Severance will go to New York in a few days, whence they will sail for Europe and will make a pleasure trip around the world.

Mrs. Cromwell Brooks has out invitations for a dinner and dance on March 17 in honor of Gen. Pershing. Mrs. Brooks returned last week from a visit to her mother, Mrs. E. T. Stotesbury, at Palm Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Gist Blair have out cards for Sunday afternoons, March 14 and 21, in the Blair mansion.

Mrs. Matthew T. Scott has left for Southern Pines, near Pinehurst, N. C., to visit her son-in-law and daughter, former Assistant Secretary of Agriculture and Mrs. Carl Vrooman, who have a cottage there.

Mrs. Charles W. Fairfax, 1841 R street, will observe her Saturday afternoon at home from 4 to 7 o'clock.

Col. and Mrs. Charles Austin Booth, U. S. A., will leave Washington today for the south. While there they will visit their son, Charles Lawrence Booth, United States public health service, at Spartanburg, S. C., during the month of March.

Dr. and Mrs. David Jayne Hill entertained a large company at dinner at Hauscher's last evening. The guests included a number of officials and diplomats as well as members of resident society.

Mr. Homer Cummings entertained at dinner last evening in the ballroom of the Shoreham. Covers were laid for thirty.

Mr. Selden G. Hopkins, assistant secretary of the interior, and Mrs. Hopkins have returned from a trip to Hot Springs, Ark., and to Wyoming.

Representative Charles Nichols and his mother, Mrs. Nichols, have moved from the Portland to the Netherlands apartments. Mr. Nichols has gone to Grand Rapids, Mich., for a short visit.

Mme. Hauge entertained a company at luncheon yesterday.

Miss Gladys Hinckley went to New

Beautiful TAFFETA DRESSES
Exclusive Models for Spring

Stinemetz
F St., Cor. 12th
Knox Hats—
Men and Women

York this morning for the Beaur Arts ball and pageant of Ancient France tonight, and to meet her brother, Lieut. Robert Hinckley, Jr., who is leaving there this week from a trip around the world.

Mrs. William Atherton Du Puy has gone to Philadelphia to solicit the co-operation of publishers with the "book fair" to be held in Washington by the League of American Penwomen late in April. This interesting event is to be combined with a ball at the home of Mrs. Francois Berger Moran on Massachusetts avenue. Mrs. Du Puy is the guest of Mrs. Frank Blair in Germantown, near Philadelphia.

At the reception and musical which Mr. and Mrs. J. P. B. Barber, 3751 Northampton street, Chevy Chase, will give on Saturday evening, their house guest, Mrs. Harry C. Pugh of Philadelphia and Miss Alice and Miss Daisy Gordon Stewart will assist the hostess.

Miss Taft Arrives Today. The arrival of Miss Helen Taft in Washington today is the signal for unusual impetus to the drive for an

MARTIN WOLF Furrier
30-32 FLORIDA AVE. N.W.
Don't delay. Have your fur made over now into latest style for spring wear. They are very fashionable, and cost is less now. Latest fashion plates on hand.

SPRING SUITS

$45.00 Up

The most advanced styles in the very smartest fabrics shown here. Select yours at once.

Paul Leibel, Inc.
1215 G St. N.W.
Ladies' Tailor and Furrier

Gamond Co.

402-404 Seventh Street.

Next Door to
H. Harris & Co.

Something Extra

For Friday and Saturday

New Spring Suits

We ask your most critical inspection of this particular lot of suits.

- the remarkably fine weaves—Tricotines and Serges.
- the specially attractive modeling—in tailored and draped effects.
- Silk lined—braid and embroidery embellishments.
- the superior workmanship.

$39.75

You are not going to match them in value under ten dollars more.

Smart Polo Coats

Correct in cut, and in the wanted weaves; the preferred colors and handsomely finished. The Swagger Coat for spring.

$19.95

Exceptional Values

We Have What We Advertise
and Make Good Every Claim

The House of Fashion

Where the New Things Are Ever
Shown First

Lovett's
1108 G Street

Friday's Specials—Extraordinary!
A Purchase of

100 Beautiful Spring Suits

Smartest Models, Finest
Tailoring. Made to Retail
Regularly at $75 to $90. $59.50

Wool Spun Suits, the new knitted Jersey Fabric for Sport and General Wear, $35.00, $39.50, $45.00

Newest Spring Dresses

Purchased at a Big Concession in Price, They Are, in Turn, Offered to Our Customers in a Like Manner

Lot No. 1

Wonderful styles of Taffeta, Georgette, Satins, Tricotines, Jerseys and Serges.

Values to $55

$29.50

Lot No. 2

Beaded Georgettes, Ruffled Taffetas, Foulards, Satins, Crepe de Chine, Tricotelette, Silk and Tricotines.

Values to $75

$39.50

New Georgette Blouses

A recent purchase offering a wide variety of smartest models. Made to sell at $10 and $12. $7.95

100 Spring Hats

The season's newest and loveliest styles; no two alike.

Friday, $7.50 and $10.00

M. Brooks & Co.
1107-1109 G Street

Great Purchase Sale of 1000 Beautiful Waists

Friday and Saturday

Our buyers—ever alert to the conditions in the market which showed fast rising prices—bought heavily and at advantageous prices, which are not possible to obtain today, with the result that at the very dawn of the Spring season we can offer values that are extraordinary.

The Material Would Cost as Much as the Sale Price of These Blouses

French Voile Waists With Real Irish Lace

At $5.00

A startling value—
Waists of this sort will cost you a great deal more later. Shown in dainty new styles, with Real Lace Trimming.

At $7.98

Hundreds of beautiful Waists, in Georgette Crepe, Stripe Crepe de Chine, Chantung, Pongee and other choice materials with Rich Lace Trimmings. Under ordinary conditions these waists would cost double.

Experienced Advertisers Prefer THE STAR